

What do you think about the amount of money available for loans? int-47

Loan Amount

There is always more available loan funds than the demand for loans

There are sometimes more loan applications than available loan funds

There are always more people interested to take a loan than the available loan funds

Other

It varies, sometimes more funds, sometimes more loan applications

Count

